iPads will be introduced at Siena College in Years 9 & 11 in 2012.

The iPad provides portability and versatility, enabling students to learn independently, collaborate with their peers and communicate their understandings using rich media. The possibilities for enhancing learning and teaching are endless!

We are committed to providing a challenging, enriching and personalised learning environment in which every student can reach her potential.