SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE CODE OF CONDUCT

PURPOSE

This Code of Conduct has a specific focus on safeguarding children and young people at Siena College against sexual, physical, psychological and emotional abuse or neglect. It is intended to complement other professional and/or occupational codes.

All staff, volunteers, contractors, clergy and board members at Siena College are expected to actively contribute to a school culture that respects the dignity of its members and affirms the Gospel values of love, care for others, compassion and justice. They are required to observe child safe principles and expectations for appropriate behaviour towards and in the company of children, as noted below.

- Listening and responding without judgment to the views and concerns of students, particularly if they are telling you that they or another child have been abused or that they are worried about their safety or the safety of another child
- Promoting the cultural safety, participation and empowerment of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students (for example, by never questioning an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander child’s self-identification)
- Promoting the cultural safety, participation and empowerment of students with culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds (for example, by having a zero tolerance culture towards discrimination)
- Promoting the safety, participation and empowerment of students with a disability
- Ensuring that adults are not alone with a student outside their prescribed role
- Reporting any allegations of child abuse to the College Principal, a Deputy Principal or a College Counsellor
- Understanding and complying with all reporting obligations as they relate to mandatory reporting and reporting under the Crimes Act 1958 (Vic.)
- Reporting any child safety concerns to the Child Safe Reporting officers (the College Counsellors or the Deputy Principals)
- Ensuring that if an allegation of child abuse is made, that the student/s are safe.

- Use College facilities for private tutoring of non-Siena students
