A CATHOLIC COLLEGE FOR YOUNG WOMEN IN THE DOMINICAN TRADITION

Siena College is an independent school for young women in the Dominican Tradition. We are energised and inspired by each other, finding joy in our work, our learning and our community. Students and staff are encouraged and supported to aim high, to pursue their dreams and to excel in all that they do.

We encourage our students to follow their academic and cultural interests, believe in their potential and become passionate lifelong learners. It is a place where the diversity and unique gifts of the young women in our care are acknowledged and celebrated, and where we aim to empower young women to go out and make a difference in the world. We seek to bridge the gaps of inequity that exist in our Nation, inviting all of our students to embrace with curiosity and joy, a multi cultural web of connection and right relationship with one another in this holistic learning environment, weaving a future of hope. Equity Scholarships are offered in the following categories:

- Indigenous Scholarship: It would be our hope to provide a First Nations student with an educational opportunity at Siena College which will enhance her own Songlines, as well as build our mutual pathways in diversity and shared understanding of our cultural heritage as custodians, archivists, songwriters and artists.
- Refugee Scholarship: Through this Scholarship, we would like to offer a Refugee student the chance to find her place and resonance in the world, and manifest hope for herself and her family from the backdrop of extreme adversity, as part of our Catholic solidarity with the vulnerable.

For families wishing to continue this legacy through their family line but may not have the financial means to do so, an Alumnae Scholarship would help perpetuate that long legacy of sending young women forth from Siena College to be agents of change in our global world.
